COMMUNITY BASED SERVICES

Educational Standards

Our Community Based Services Program offers case management services to children, youth, and families residing in New York City and Lower Hudson Valley.

The primary goal is to prevent psychiatric hospitalizations leading to the separation of families by addressing the multiple stressors impacting their lives.

Targeted Case Management

PROGRAM LOCATION: ALL FIVE BOROUGHS IN NYC, AS WELL AS IN ROCKLAND COUNTY AND LOWER HUDSON VALLEY.

For those children facing chronic health, mental health, or substance use issues, knowing where to turn and getting the right advice and treatment is important. At Saint Dominic's Family Services, we understand that informed decisions and reliable support for a child's treatment brings peace of mind and better quality of life to a child and family in need.

Children's Waiver Program

PROGRAM LOCATION: BRONX

The Children's Waiver is designed to offer strength-based services to serious behavioral health children and their families.

Children & Family Treatment Support Services

PROGRAM LOCATION: BRONX AND ROCKLAND COUNTY

The program provides mental health, substance use, and behavioral support services to empower children and their families to improve their health, well-being, and quality of life. These services strengthen families and help them make informed decisions about their care. Services are provided at home or in the community.

Family Support Network

PROGRAM LOCATION: ROCKLAND COUNTY

The Family Support Network provides an array of services and support to families raising a child or young adult up to 21 years of age, who has social, emotional, and behavioral health challenges.
